1. It is rumored that the State Committee for Material Procurement<sup>1</sup> will be dissolved by 31 December 1953. Reports also indicate that the State Planning Commission in its present form will also be dissolved by that date. The exact dates and the manner in which the changes will take place are uncertain.
2. It is also reported that the State Planning Commission will be revised so that it will include the planning function of the present State Committee. The operating functions such as allocations and supervision of sales are to be assigned to the sales division of the various trade organs (DHZ's) involved.

1. Comment. Formerly called the State Administration for Material Procurement.
